The Persistence of Liberty: An American Philosophy
by David Netherton recognized through Independent Press Awards®

(Boston, MA) -- The INDEPENDENT PRESS AWARD recognized The Persistence of Liberty: An American Philosophy by David Netherton as the 2020 winner in the category of Philosophy.

The competition is judged by experts from different aspects of the book industry, including publishers, writers, editors, and book cover designers. Selected award winners are based on overall excellence.

This appealing book treats the genesis of contemporary American taste, tolerance and energy. The Persistence of Liberty <https://thepersistenceofliberty.com> illuminates the idealistic perspective so many Americans share.

In collected essays, it travels across recurring themes of the latter twentieth century in prose poetry that draws upon the arts, natural sciences, evolution of the spirit, and the liberty of the American moment to form its own practical philosophy.

David Netherton (right photo) writes on the community of nations and America's place in it. Educated in Boston and Vienna, he received his doctorate in philosophy in the UK and has lectured on human development. His work appears in periodicals and academic journals, and illuminates America's recent decades drawing upon philosophy, science and culture.

In 2020, the INDEPENDENT PRESS AWARD had entries worldwide. Participating authors and publishers reside in countries such as Australia, Brazil, Cambodia, Canada, India, Ireland, Portugal, Sweden, and others. Books submitted with writers located in cities such as Austin to Santa Cruz; Copenhagen to Mumbai; Albuquerque to Honolulu, and others.

"We are thrilled to announce the winners and distinguished favorites in our annual 2020 INDEPENDENT PRESS AWARD. This year included a myriad of excellent independently published books. It is clear that independents are prospering in every corner of the earth. We are so proud to be highlighting key titles representing global independent publishing." said awards sponsor Gabrielle Olczak.
